Tuesday
Evening.
[3/3/14]

Monmy darling,
I had a letter from Helen this afternoon which was real interesting. I would like to have had a bite of the chocolate ice cream that Anna made; if the snow would only last until Easter I could make some too. I remember that one winter I made sherbet quite often. It was the year of my P. G. course in high school and once I had just finished some orange ice when Mr. Kratzer came to call. I gave him some and I felt so proud because it really was quite good and he liked it. That year was such fun, wasn't it? I often think of those lunches you used to put up for me. they never grew tiresome for there were always little surprises in them. How I used to look forward to twelve o'clock! Wasn't you the dearest Mommy that ever happened to do it for me!

I wouldn't have missed that year for anything. Things do work out all right after all, don't they?

Goodnight, dear Mommy,
your ownest Jamie
